Mariam Shams (Y12GS) had the honor of being one of the nine speakers at the TEDxYouth@OOW event. The event centered around the profound theme of 'A Bottled Letter', delving into the immense power that unspoken words and thoughts hold. Aligned with this theme, her talk, titled 'Childhood Dreams: The Forgotten Blueprints of Our Lives,' explored the significance of our early aspirations and how reconnecting with them can profoundly shape our adult lives.

Addressing a diverse audience of both adults and teenagers, Mariam shared insights on bridging the gap between our long-forgotten childhood dreams and the paths we tread as adults, emphasizing how this connection could profoundly influence our personal growth. Mariam said, "Being part of TEDxYouth@OOW and having the opportunity to contribute to this transformative dialogue was not just an honor but a deeply enriching experience." Grateful to the TEDxYouth@OOW team for this remarkable opportunity, she is now proud to bear the title of a TEDx speaker. Well done, Mariam, we are proud of you!
